

Sailing Itinerary, Stockholm, 1 week

Day 1. Saltsjö-Duvnäs – Saltsjöbaden, 4 NM, 59°16,6N, 18°18,9E
Saltsjöbaden is a large and sheltered guest harbour situated only 5 miles from Saltsjö-Duvnäs.

Services: toilets, shower, electricity, kiosk, gasoline, fresh water.

Day 2. Saltsjöbaden - Landsort, 40 NM, 58°46,2N, 17°51,1E
Landsort is an old pilot and lighthouse station on Öja, the southernmost island in the Stockholm archipelago. About 40 people live on the island, with Sweden's oldest preserved beacon and beautiful surroundings. Guest harbour for about 20 boats on north end of Öja. Shop open in summer with outdoor cafés.

Services: toilets, showers, fresh water, kiosk, youth hostel, café.

Day 3. Landsort - Fjärdlång, 30 NM, 59°02,4N 18°30,5E
Natural harbour - moving north you will get the chance to experience a real unique part of sailing in the Baltic sea - the islands. Located east of the island of Ornö is beautiful Fjärdlång with its sheltered, natural harbour. The youth hostel, camping ground, beaches and beautiful natural anchorages have attracted visitors to Fjärdlång for many years.

Services: Youth hostel, garbage disposal.

Day 4. Fjärdlång - Finnhamn, Kålgårdsön, 30 NM, (coordinates! Jn checks)

Finnhamn, with its large youth hostel, restaurant and beaches lies on the border of the outer archipelago and is one of Stockholms most popular holiday destinations. Finnhamn is a group of large and small islands, fantastic to explore, with rowing boats to borrow and rent to allow you move between the islands. You will find restaurant Finnhamns Café & Krog and a shop that is open in the summertime. There are several sheltered natural anchorages in the area.

Services: Restaurant, café, kiosk, showers, toilets, sauna, garbage disposals, information.

Day 5. Finnhamn - Fejan, 25 NM, 59°45N 19°10E

Here in the northern part, Fejan is a interesting place to visit; with its dramatic history as a hide-away for smugglers, quarantine hospital during the cholera epidemic, refugee camp and naval station during the world wars. Nowadays the best thing, though, is to enjoy a nice dinner at the restaurant in the old mortuary or Fejans Krog.

Services: toilets, sauna, fresh water, electricity, restaurant, kiosk, youth hostel.

Day 6. Fejan - Vaxholm, 34 NM, 59°24,1N 18°21,3E

Closer to Stockholm the islands are more lush, although many of them overgrown by luxurious villas. Vaxholm is a small town influenced by its nearness to the archipelago. Here you can admire the fort, stroll down the shopping streets or have a beer at one of the pubs and why not - do it all.

Services: electricity, toilets, fresh water, gasoline, restaurant, café, shop, pharmacy, post office and tourist information.

Day 7. Vaxholm - Wasahamnen, Stockholm, 11 NM, 59°19,6N 18°05,8E

It is definitely worthwhile to spend a couple of hours in the capital of Sweden. Walk through the Old Town, find yourself a nice spot to enjoy a cup of coffee and embrace the view of the beautiful capital. Just after spending a week sailing in the beautiful archipelago - it couldn't get any better.

Services: toilets, showers, electricity, fresh water, gasoline.

Day 8. Wasahamnen - Saltsjö-Duvnäs, 5 NM, 59°17,8N 18°12,9E
